

FIELDS CHAPEL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

WELCOME TO OUR GUESTS

We are honored that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you have any questions, please see our Pastor, Rev. Anne Rex.

Our restrooms, nursery, classrooms, offices, kitchen and fellowship hall are located on the lower level of the church. Please make yourselves at home.

Children of all ages are welcome to stay and worship with us. However, children 6 years and under may visit the nursery which is located downstairs and is staffed by a CPR and First Aide trained teacher.

Sinning Like a Christian: A new look at the 7 Deadly Sins

People may say that Christians are too judgmental, that we talk too much about sin, but it seems that the problem really is that we talk too much about other people's sins - pointing out the proverbial speck in others' eyes while ignoring the logs in our own. We all know that we fall short of God's ideals for us, but too often prefer not to dwell on the specifics of our own sinfulness. During this sermon series we will dwell on our own shortcomings and find God's compassion waiting.

We like to comfort ourselves with the fact we haven't committed certain "big" sins, but what makes the Seven Deadly Sins (which are not directly biblical) perhaps more incisive than the Ten Commandments is their smallness, their personalness. The seven are quiet, internal roots of so many other sins, and that is why we must explore them - and examine ourselves so closely.

What is choir all about?

The songs sung by the choir are a way to worship God by making sounds that praise or exalt God or call attention to God's provision for us in some way. I did not say making a "beautiful" or "perfect" sound. I just said sound, because I am convinced that God does not hear people who praise Him the way we think He hears. You've heard of old cliché "seeing the world through rose tinted glasses"? Well, I think God hears us through "rose tinted" ears. He recognizes and appreciates a gift of the heart and choirs offer a gift of sound from the heart to God. So what happens at choir anyway? Well, we laugh a lot. God loves laughter. We make mistakes. God enjoys watching us strive to do our best and overlooks the mistakes. We learn a lot, sometimes it's what a specific word means or a musical symbol or whether something is loud or soft. We learn together. We learn about each other and we learn about God. That's what choir is about. It's hard fun work that exalts God.

Youth and Children Wednesday Night Kickoff, Wednesday, August 7

Don't miss the great event! The event of the year! The event that will out do all other events!! The event that everyone is talking about! The event that will tickle your funny bone! The event that will send sparks flying! The event no one will want to miss! The event planned just for you!
THE EVENT!!!

Children's Sunday School and Bible

Power Kids will be coming to Mrs. Sherry's house to make cookies. Please be there by 10:00 on Tuesday July 23rd. We will be making cookies for MUST Ministries. The children wanted to make pizza for lunch so after we bake and decorate our cookies, we will make lunch. We should be done by 12:30. Please RSVP so I have an idea of how much shopping I need to do.

What Shall I Bring Before the Lord on Sunday July 21st

Have you ever wondered what you have that God wants to hear or see? I have never been more excited about a Sunday than July 21st. We are proud to present so many folks, from 5 to 75, who are excited to bring their best before the Lord!!! You still can bring something before the Lord!!! Please let me know what song, Hallmark card, poem, photograph, flower, sewing project, perfect concrete or tile laying project or anything that you have ever done that reminds you of God and why? This is NOT all about music. It IS all about what YOU bring to God. Bring it on!!!!

And because this is such a special time of presenting to The Lord, we will only have one service on Sunday, July 21. We will not have an 8:40 am service, we will only have an 11 am service .
