Sermon Series Beginning Sunday Nov 10 - Nov 24 Money 911

Let's talk about money!! Yes, let's talk about money. Let's talk about the gift of money and how we are called to be stewards of the gift. We will talk about where money comes from (I like the tree idea!), budgets (or planning if that makes you feel better), myths (I just like to use the word), giving (yes, giving) and where God fits into all of this. If you have something special you think we should address about Money and God, let me know...

Dear Fields Chapel Family

Your time over the past month to share with me your love and support has been amazing. Each day to receive your words of encouragement and love was a treat hard to match. Each day, a new voice, special words, new insight, always grace. Thank you.

Your special gift of love last Sunday at the 11:00 service was overwhelming. The presence of the Spirit in The Chapel brought chill bumps!!! Thank you.

Gary and I are so very excited about the possibility of going to the Holy Land! Thank you for your financial gifts toward this trip!!

Words do not truly convey my love for you, my happiness in the opportunity to serve with and for you, and the joy I feel in being your Pastor. But let me say...I love you! I am honored to serve with you. I am proud to be your Pastor. I continue to look forward to the future and pray for God's continue wisdom, blessings and grace on you and The Chapel.

You are all amazing!
I love you!

Must Ministries

We are in need of the following items for Thanksgiving Dinner:
400 Boxes of Stuffing

“All in God’s good time” is a phrase I have heard all my life. As an undergraduate piano performance major, I took on some major pianistic works and struggled with more than a few of them. Why? I wasn’t a mature enough musicians, for one thing, and I didn’t wait for God’s good time on some of them, for another. Since then, I’ve performed most of them, older and wiser for the wait. Time is an essential component of a musician’s world. We divide the world into measurements of time and rigidly learn them as young musicians only to use all of that rigidity to learn how NOT to be rigid with our sense of time. That still does not mean we get to play fast when we like and slow when we like or mess around with a composer’s intent too much. What it does mean is that we learn how to address complicated concepts of time with greater wisdom and experience. Mastering the art of waiting for God’s good time may be one of the ideals that I never achieve, but one of those that is the best thing that I could ever exhibit for other musicians. After all, all time is God’s time. Musicianship requires skill development and that takes time, but it always comes together in God’s good time.

Trick or Treat for the Troops

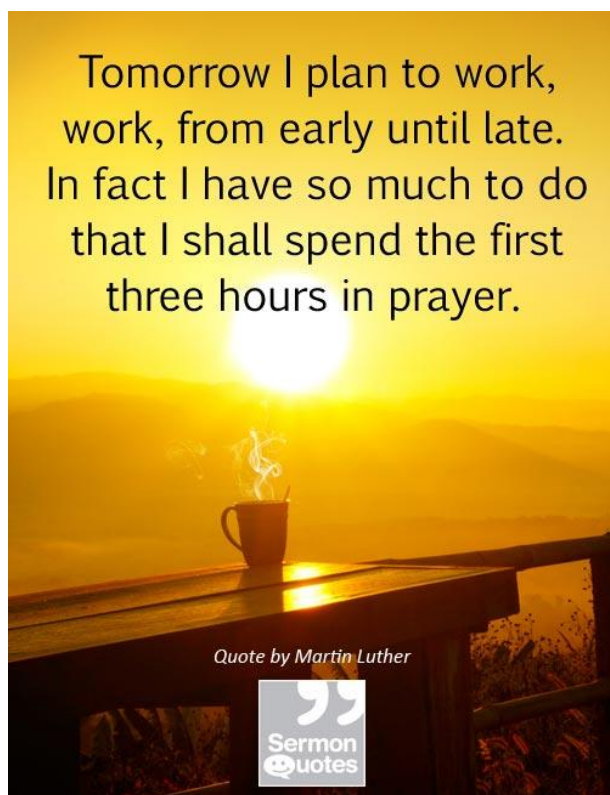

Don’t know what to do with all that left over candy from Halloween. You can donate it to Trick or Treat for the Troops. Give all your left over candy to Rev. Anne and we will send it off to the Troops. If you have a military person you would like treats to go to give their Name and address to Rev. Anne Rex and she will make sure they get it. We will receive your candy through November 8th, 2013.

Contemplative Worship BE STILL 8:40 AM EVERY SUNDAY MORNING

Each Sunday you can begin the day being still at our contemplative worship. Contemplative

Worship is a setting in which we quiet ourselves in order to open our souls to the ministry of God within us. It is one way to hear the voice of God with our hearts before going out to engage the world in meaningful ministry.

Our Services may look different each week, but there will be three common elements, meditation, communion and healing prayer. Quietness is the classroom where you learn to hear My voice. -God

Flowers for Chapel

Some of our church members would like to see fresh flowers on the alter for Sunday mornings. This is another wonderful way of worshiping and sharing the Lord's beauty. There will be a sign up sheet in the back for anyone interested in bringing fresh flowers for the alter in honor of someone or in memory of someone or just because you want to share God's beauty with the church. Please put your name down who the flowers are in memory or honor of and the date you want to put fresh flowers on the alter so we can put it in the bulletin. If you have any questions please see Bonnie Nelson.
