Sermon Series

Sermon Series Beginning Sunday Nov
10 - Nov 24
Money 911

Let's talk about money!! Yes, let's talk about money. Let's talk about the gift of money and how we are called to be stewards of the gift. We will talk about where money comes from (I like the tree idea!), budgets (or planning if that makes you feel better), myths (I just like to use the word), giving (yes, giving) and where God fits into all of this. If you have something special you think we should address about Money and God, let me know...

Fields Chapel United Methodist Church Vision

Congratulations Wes Frye and Frank Verdi

This past year, both Wes Frye and Frank Verdi have taken advanced classes through The United Methodist Church to continue their journeys as Certified Lay Speakers. Their certification enables them to preach in United Methodist Churches around the conference. This past Thursday evening at Smyrna First UMC both Frank and Wes were officially named and consecrated to continue their journey. It was a great event to witness two of our own being prayed over. Blessed are the feet of those you bring good news!!!! Congratulations to both men and prayers go with you as you share the message around the conference!

VOLUNTEER AT THE CHAPEL

The Chapel is always working to improve upon what we are already doing. One way that we know we can improve is working with and recruiting our volunteers. We cannot exist without our volunteers!! In order for us to do a better job we are looking for a volunteer to help us begin getting better!!! Please consider this position and contact Rev. Anne for more info. Thank you!

Canton Transition House

The Transition House is looking for a washing machine to replace the one that just broke.

If you know of anyone who wants to get rid of a washer please let Wes Frye or Darrell James know and we will make arrangements to get it picked up. Thank you.

Lighting the Candles

We want to start the lighting of the candles on the alter at the beginning of the service. If you are interested in your child lighting the candles on Sun. at the 11 am service please see Karen McLees or Bonnie Nelson. They will be making the schedule for the children to be part of the worship service.

Must Ministries

We are in need of the following items for

Thanksgiving Dinner:

400 Boxes of Stuffing

Due November 15, 2013

“All in God’s good time” is a phrase I have heard all my life. As an undergraduate piano performance major, I took on some major pianistic works and struggled with more than a few of them. Why? I wasn’t a mature enough musicians, for one thing, and I didn’t wait for God’s good time on some of them, for another. Since then, I’ve performed most of them, older and wiser for the wait. Time is an essential component of a musician’s world. We divide the world into measurements of time and rigidly learn them as young musicians only to use all of that rigidity to learn how NOT to be rigid with our sense of time. That still does not mean we get to play fast when we like and slow when we like or mess around with a composer’s intent too much. What it does mean is that we learn how to address complicated concepts of time with greater wisdom and experience. Mastering the art of waiting for God’s good time may be one of the ideals that I never achieve, but one of those that is the best thing that I could ever exhibit for other musicians. After all, all time is God’s time. Musicianship requires skill development and that takes time, but it always comes together in God’s good time.

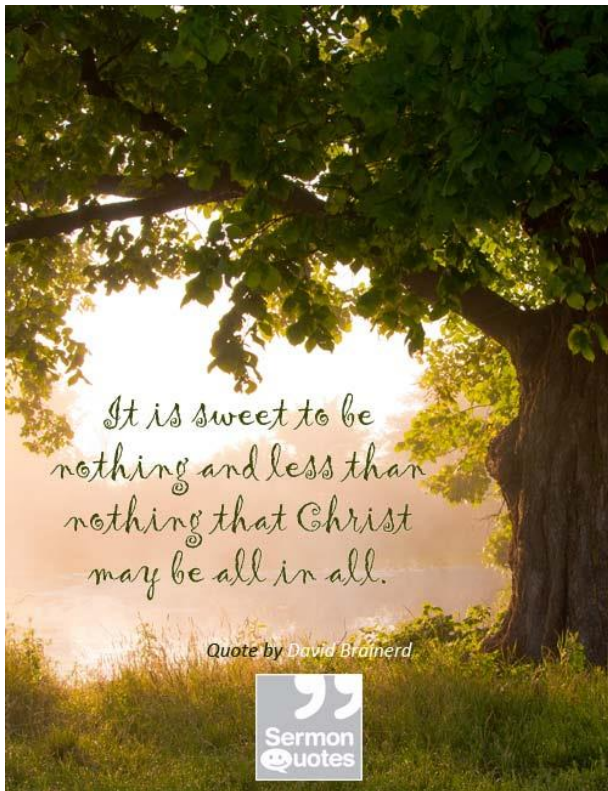

Contemplative Worship

BE STILL 8:40 AM EVERY SUNDAY MORNING

Each Sunday you can begin the day being still at our contemplative worship. Contemplative

Worship is a setting in which we quiet ourselves in order to open our souls to the ministry of God within us. It is one way to hear the voice of God with our hearts before going out to engage the world in meaningful ministry.

Our Services may look different each week, but there will be three common elements, meditation, communion and healing prayer. Quietness is the classroom where you learn to hear My voice. -God

Women's Christmas Luncheon

The women of the Monday Afternoon Bible Study invite all of the women of The Chapel to a Christmas luncheon on Monday, December 16 at 12:30 pm in Hendrix Hall at The Chapel. You need to bring nothing but yourselves, and maybe a friend who is in need of some extra loving during the holiday season. Please rsvp to Kathy James at kjames@fieldschapel.net.

Flowers for Chapel

Some of our church members would like to see fresh flowers on the alter for Sunday mornings. This is another wonderful way of worshiping and sharing the Lords beauty. There will be a sign up sheet in the back for anyone interested in bringing fresh flowers for the alter in honor of someone or in memory of someone or just because you want to share Gods beauty with the church. Please put your name down who the flowers are in memory or honor of and the date you want to put fresh flowers on the alter so we can put it in the bulletin. If you have any questions please see Bonnie Nelson.

Part Time Youth Director Needed

Fields Chapel UMC is in search of a part time Youth Director, 10-12 hours per week. Some of their responsibility include: establishing a balanced and productive Wednesday night program, developing and maintaining contact with youth and parents, working with a group of core volunteers, involvement with Sunday School, mission events, and off campus events. If you are interested and wish to see a job description, please contact the church office at kjames@fieldschapel.org or visit our website at www.fieldschapel.org. Please send your resume and cover letter to Dana Thompson at dmt@dmtlawfirm.com.

Women's Bible Study

Just a reminder that the Women of Fields Chapel meet every Monday at 1:00 pm for Bible study. All are welcome. It is not necessary to attend all classes, or is it necessary to purchase any of the materials. We also discuss personal feelings and problems that come up during the week. Starting this week we will be studying "The Women of Christmas" Please come and join us we would love to have you.

Coming up soon our Annual Thanksgiving Day Dinner here at Fields Chapel UMC.

November 20th at 6:00 PM in Hendricks Hall

Come and enjoy, Bring friends, all your family, and invite neighbors.

Come and enjoy!

Sign up sheet is located in the back of the Chapel if you would like to contribute a food item.
