Early Response Team: Basic, Recertification, and Train-the-Trainer

Who Benefits: Volunteers who work with Early Response Teams (ERTs) are often the first people on the ground providing aid after a disaster strikes. Their mission is to create a caring presence. They immediately help to clean things up and make homes safe, sanitary and secure.

ERT volunteers must go through ERT training with UMCOR. This ensures that they will operate under specific guidelines that allow them to be productive and caring while causing no further harm or being a burden to the affected community. Topics covered in the class include the who, what, when, where and how of doing ministry, as well as hands on experience in the specific tasks that early responders are expected to accomplish.

After completing this training, scoring 70% or above on the ERT quiz, and passing a background check, volunteers will be eligible to receive an UMCOR ERT badge. Instituted May 1, 2009, this badge is part of a national effort to certify early response volunteers across multiple agencies. This was born out of "lessons learned" from 9/11 and the need for volunteers to hold specific credentials to enter the disaster site. UMCOR ERT badge holders will be eligible to receive national certification to assist following a US disaster. If you became an ERT before 2009, you can earn a badge by taking a re-certification class.

If you already have served on an ERT team and you are interested in becoming an authorized ERT trainer, UMCOR will provide a minimum of sixteen hours additional training upon request. If you then pass a background check, get a recommendation from your conference, and perform well in a class-setting evaluation, you can be authorized to teach ERT classes within your conference.

They can have 2 or 3 more people come. This is where it will be:

October 4 - Basic Early Response Team Training (ERT)

The cost is 20.00 for a back ground check and lunch. I need to know by Sept 10th if anyone wants to go so I can let the church know.

Teepa will be instructing in the positive approach of caring for a dementia loved one.

Philippians 2:3-14

³ Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. ⁴ Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. ⁵ Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,

⁶ who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,

⁷ but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form,

⁸ he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

⁹ Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name,

¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

¹¹ and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Shining as Lights in the World

¹² Therefore, my beloved...work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; ¹³ for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

¹⁴ Do all things without murmuring and arguing, ¹⁵ so that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, in which you shine like stars in the world.

Lovingkindness Through Forgiveness Workshop will be offered at Fields Chapel soon. Times being considered for this six-week workshop are 9:30-10:45 on Sunday mornings or 7:00-8:30 on Tuesday evenings. Please email or call Pastor April with your interest and time preference. This is open to the community and those who want to join via video conferencing from other locations.

Ladies Retreat is being considered for the first weekend in November. We need to have a certain number to move forward with the retreat. If you are interested and available, call or email your name and the number coming with you to the church office before October 1st. This is open to the community too!
