CONGREGATIONAL CONFESSION

L. Let us pray this prayer taken from Psalm 150.

P. Mighty God, You are mighty!
Forgive us for the many times we have not acted in accord with your character. We give you thanks!

L. Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty firmament!

P. We praise him for his mighty deeds; we praise him according to his surpassing greatness!

L. Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp!

P. Praise him with tambourine and dance; praise him with strings and pipe!

L. Praise him with clanging cymbals; praise him with loud clashing cymbals!

P. Let everything that breathes praise the LORD!

"Praise the LORD!!!" Amen!

HEALING

Each of us carries around hurts, habits, and hang-ups, and Celebrate Recovery is a powerful ministry aimed at brining hope, healing, and freedom. We meet every Monday evening. Join us for fellowship and food at 6:30pm, followed by worship in the Sanctuary at 7:00pm with small Share Groups at 8:00 pm. We also offer Celebration Place, which is those in elementary and middle school (and a loving nursery is provided). We invite teens to join us for The Landing, which meets in the Chapel. Lives are being transformed and hope is being restored. See Darrell James for any questions.

SCRIPTURES

Luke 24:13-34

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?” He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.” Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. (OVER)

SCRIPTURE CONT.

They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!” Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Isaiah 53:5 But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.
