CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

L. Beckoning God, We come to you. Humbly we offer our praise. We seek your ways.

P. As you moved in the lives of Elijah and Elisha, move in our lives.

L. You invite us to journey to unknown territory, to listen for your voice, and to speak your prophetic word in a world that does not want to hear.

P. Empowered by your Spirit, we will journey to unknown territory, we will listen for your voice, and we will speak your prophetic word in a world that does not want to hear.

L. Grant us the courage, Father God.

P. Grant us the courage we need to journey, trust, listen, speak, and accept your commission to be your faithful servant people. Amen.

Field's Chapel Vision: That we will be an instrument of God where people are transformed through God's love and grace for the transformation of the world.

HEALING

Each of us carries around hurts, habits, and hang-ups, and Celebrate Recovery is a powerful ministry aimed at brining hope, healing, and freedom. We meet every Monday evening. Join us for fellowship and food at 6:30pm, followed by worship in the Sanctuary at 7:00pm with small Share Groups at 8:00 pm. We also offer Celebration Place, which is those in elementary and middle school (and a loving nursery is provided). We invite teens to join us for The Landing, which meets in the Chapel. Lives are being transformed and hope is being restored. See Darrell James for any questions.

2 Kings 2:1-25

When the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; the Lord has sent me to Bethel." But Elisha said, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. The company of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, "Do you know that the Lord is going to take your master from you today?" "Yes, I know," Elisha replied, "so be quiet." Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, Elisha; the Lord has sent me to Jericho." And he replied, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho. The company of the prophets at Jericho went up to Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the Lord is going to take your master from you today?" "Yes, I know," he replied, "so be quiet." Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; the Lord has sent me to the Jordan." And he replied, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So the two of them walked on. Fifty men from the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan. Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?" "Let me inherit a double portion of your [God's Holy] spirit," Elisha replied. "You have asked a difficult thing," Elijah said, "yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours—otherwise, it will not." As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind. Elisha saw this and cried out, "My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!" And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his garment and tore it in two. Elisha then picked up Elijah's cloak that had fallen from him and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. He took the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and struck the water with it. "Where now is the Lord, the God of Elijah?" he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over. The company of the prophets from Jericho, who were watching, said, "The spirit of Elijah is resting on Elisha." And they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him. "Look," they said, "we your servants have fifty able men. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the Lord has picked him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley." "No," Elisha replied, "do not send them." But they persisted until he was too embarrassed to refuse. So he said, "Send them." And they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him. When they returned to Elisha, who was staying in Jericho, he said to them, "Didn't I tell you not to go?"

The people of the city said to Elisha, "Look, our lord, this town is well situated, as you can see, but the water is bad and the land is unproductive." "Bring me a new bowl," he said, "and put salt in it." So they brought it to him. Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt into it, saying, "This is what the Lord says: 'I have healed this water."
(OVER)

Never again will it cause death or make the land unproductive.' " And the water has remained pure to this day, according to the word Elisha had spoken.

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not be encumbered once more by a yoke of slavery.
